This handbook has been developed for your benefit. The information contained within is aimed at answering many of your questions about program policies, procedures and regulations. FROM TIME TO TIME ADDITIONS WILL BE MADE TO THIS MANUAL AS THE NEED ARISES.

Again, welcome to the Upward Bound Program. We hope that this will be an enriching and enjoyable experience for you.

Sincerely yours,

Leah W. Puryear,

Welcome to the 2016 Upward Bound Summer Program. Your participation should prove to be a rewarding time for you this summer. This handbook you are now reading will help you to enjoy the academic and leisure activities that have been planned for you.

Use the next five weeks to grow emotionally and intellectually. Plan your time and activities well, increase your academic skills and have fun! We want you to excel through hard work and to achieve the success you desire for yourself and your family. We work hard; we expect you to do the same. Have a great summer!

OUR PURPOSE

Upward Bound’s purpose is to provide concerned and capable young people, from across central Virginia, the opportunity to develop their educational talents. Upward Bound is for high school students who have an interest in continuing their educational careers on a college, university or technical institute level. Upward Bound serves the same purpose as it did when it started out nearly 50 years ago, in the summer of 1968.

A qualified staff with various talents will be available to all Upward Bound students. However, the “success” of the program depends on the work of each student participant. Therefore, your first priority, at all times, must be on the improvement of your academic skills.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

You will be at the University of Virginia for these five weeks. This program will give you a chance to experience college life, prepare for the upcoming year at your high school; and increase your responsibilities as a citizen of this community. First, you must read this handbook from cover to cover. In reading this handbook, you will discover rules and guidelines by which you must govern yourselves. It is important that you earn respect, as well as, bring honor and dignity to yourselves.

Bear in mind that your education in Upward Bound will not be limited to the classroom. So always conduct yourselves as if people are judging you...because they are! They will judge you by the way you act in Upward Bound. This is a program that you have chosen to participate in. So please take advantage of the resources being offered to you. Likewise, be willing to share in the responsibilities.

We are hoping that you will work hard and enjoy Upward Bound and can benefit from the richness the program can bring to your lives. We welcome you and wish you every success and happiness this summer.

Statement on Obscene Material

Although there may be difficult line-drawing in determining what is or is not obscene, students, faculty and staff should know that Va. Code Section 18.2-372 defines "obscene" as that which: "Considered as a whole, has as its dominant theme or purpose . . . a shameful or morbid interest in nudity, sexual conduct, sexual excitement, excretory functions or products thereof or sadomasochistic abuse, and which goes substantially beyond customary limits of candor in description or representation of such matters and which, taken as a whole, does not have serious literary, artistic, political, or scientific value."

The distribution, production, publication or sale of obscene items is illegal in Virginia (Va. Code Section 18.2-374). A first offense is punishable as a Class 1 misdemeanor, which carries a sentence of up to twelve months in jail and/or a fine of not more than $2,500. Any subsequent obscenity conviction is a Class 6 felony, which carries a sentence of between one and five years in prison, or up to twelve months in jail and/or a fine of $2,500.

Further, a student, faculty or staff member distributing obscene material through a Web page or other means could be subject to criminal prosecution in other states to the extent that any individual in those states accesses the web page or other delivery mechanism. Such action may violate federal law as well (18 U.S.C. Section 1465) which criminalizes the transportation of obscene materials in interstate commerce. Conviction under the federal law can result in a prison sentence of up to five years, a fine of not more than $5,000, or both. In addition, placing obscene material on a University of Virginia server violates University policies, including but not limited to the computer usage policy, the employee standards of conduct, and the student standards of conduct. Such violations could result in disciplinary penalties.

- Based on statements from the General Counsel, U.Va.
